For those wishing to make it even more special and definitely more romantic, stay overnight at one of the local Bed and Breakfast inns, many of which are running special romantic weekend packages in honor of Festival Hill's annual Round Top Music Festival (June 10 - July 15).

If you prefer to dine out rather than picnic, you can eat before the concert and return downtown for a special desert at one of Round Top's fine restaurants. The perfect end to a perfect day.

If owning a country home interests you, this is a good opportunity to see what Round Top has to offer. The property market is booming and several of the local agents will be holding Open Houses.

And, of course, Round Top also has a wonderful array of shops to meander through, from antiques to international-quality art and fine fashion apparel.
